

A Spiritual Journey of Forty Five Stations To the Cross
From Deacon Chris

Monday in the Fourth Week of Lent

Twenty Seventh Station: Joseph has to take Mary and the child Jesus into exile in Egypt.

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.”

R/ “Because by your holy Cross You have redeemed the world.

Scripture Reading.

Matthew Chapter 2 verses 13 to 18

28th December The Holy Innocents

Reflection.

When Mary gave her ‘Yes’ to God and Joseph was enlightened in a dream little did they know what lay ahead of them. They had to move from one place to another to comply with the law, to escape a murderous king and then avoid that king’s brother. Many people are moving from one place to another for the same reasons. Peace should be the world’s priority and out of that will come equality in all aspects of life. The Infant Jesus brings peace to everybody. It is up to the world to accept it.

Our Father.

Hail Mary.

Glory be.

I love you, Jesus, my love, above all things, I repent with my whole heart of having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again. Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.
