Reflection

Are we impetuous like Peter and put obstacles in the way of experiencing something really good. Peter had seen the Lord wash the feet of some of the other disciples. They didn't object. Perhaps Peter was overthinking it. He didn't see the example that our Lord was giving. People can be squeamish or ticklish about the subject of their own feet or the feet of others. Our Lord showed the depths (or perhaps the height) of his love by doing this. He went on to do something more amazing when he gave his life for us.

Our Father.

Hail Mary.

Glory be.

I love you, Jesus, my love, above all things, I repent with my whole heart of having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again. Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.
