

A Spiritual Journey of Forty Five Stations To the Cross
From Deacon Chris

Sunday of the Second Week in Lent

Twelfth Station: Preparations for the First Passover Meal.

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.”

R/ “Because by your holy Cross You have redeemed the world.

Scripture Reading

Exodus Chapter 12 verses 1 to 14

Friday Week 15 Year 1

Reflection.

The Lord has given Moses and Aaron specific instructions on how the whole community of Israel are to prepare to leave Egypt. There is a true sense of community because if the sacrificial lamb is too much for one family then they must join together with another. There is the instruction to mark the door posts and lintel so that the Lord will pass over them. They must celebrate this event for all generations. It has to be a remembrance. Does this not sound familiar. When Jesus was celebrating the Passover with his disciples he gave them a new Passover and said that they had to do this in remembrance of him. This is our Mass which is the here and now. Not like the Passover because that is history and very important history at that.

Our Father.

Hail Mary.

Glory be.

I love you, Jesus, my love, above all things, I repent with my whole heart of having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again. Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.