Reflection

Our Lord doesn't paint an enticing picture of what it is like to be a disciple going out into the world. Lambs among wolves, no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Why has he said this? Is it a case of unburdening ourselves of the trivia in our daily lives so that we can concentrate on doing the Lord's work? Genuinely saluting somebody on the road can bring God into their lives but it is not something that we will know. The effect may take a while to manifest itself. Look how long it took our Lord with some people and he got their in the end.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

I love you, Jesus, my love, above all things, I repent with my whole heart of having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again. Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.
