

A Spiritual Journey of Forty Five Stations To the Cross
From Deacon Chris

Tuesday of the Second Week in Lent

Fourteenth Station: Samuel is Sent to Anoint a Successor to Saul and finds David.

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.”

R/ “Because by your holy Cross You have redeemed the world.

Scripture Reading

1st Book of Samuel Chapter 16 verses 1 to 13

Tuesday Week 2 Year 2

Reflection.

In this passage we see the Lord at work. Carrying out his plan of salvation. We are introduced to Jesse. Samuel asks them to come and sacrifice with him. He wants Jesse’s sons to be there. He sees each one in turn and is convinced that the Lord’s chosen one stands before hm. He does this with each of the sons. None are suitable. Almost in desperation he asks if Jesse has any more sons. There is one. Our reading describes him as a boy of a fresh complexion. This is the one, the Lord’s chosen one.

It is a good job that we cannot see people as God sees them (and that includes us) because we may be surprised at what we might see. We have to look on everybody as being made in God’s image. I know this is a task that we find hard at times but we must persevere.

Our Father.

Hail Mary.

Glory be.

I love you, Jesus, my love, above all things, I repent with my whole heart of having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again. Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.