

A Spiritual Journey of Forty Five Stations To the Cross
From Deacon Chris

Monday in Holy week

Fortieth First Station: Judas conspires with the authorities to hand Jesus over to them. He looked for a way to betray him.

“We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you.”

R/ “Because by your holy Cross You have redeemed the world.

Scripture Reading

Mark Chapter 14 verses 10 to 11

Palm Sunday Year B

Reflection.

The word betray can provoke some very strong feelings. It can also be applied to many different situations. What can be betrayed? Our feelings, our friends, our family, our country and our God. The reasons for betrayal can be many and often it is probably to save our own skin. But if this is the case do we actually save it? For a while possibly? I think it is easy to offer conjecture as to why Judas did what he did. Our Lord knew it was going to happen and accepted it because, as we can say, it was part of the plan.

Our Father.

Hail Mary.

Glory be.

I love you, Jesus, my love, above all things, I repent with my whole heart of having offended you. Never permit me to separate myself from you again. Grant that I may love you always; and then do with me what you will.